A Premium of One Dollar Per Ton to Illinois Miners, Not a Square Deal--Judge Evans Decision in the Mann Suit Reversed--Illinois Central Engineers Sounding for Bridge Foundations on Kentucky Side of the Ohio River--The St. Louis Short Line via Marion Now a Certainty.

The older readers of the PRESS will remember the presidential nominees on the old line Whig ticket years ago, "Bell and Everett."

John Bell, who headed the ticket was a Tennessean who moved to Union county, Ky., after he had purchased a large acreage of land in both Crittenden and Union. The voting precinct of Bells Mines, in Crittenden county, is about all that is left of the name, although the very rich veins of coal lying underneath this land are just now attracting the attention of the financial and industrial world. The coking qualities of this coal will be taken advantage of and several hundred ovens will be built at or near Sturgis. This coal is said to be fully as good as the best Pittsburgh and is a thousand miles nearer the Southern consumer than the Pennsylvania article.

According to a special to the Sun of Morganfield, from Sturgis, the Hillman Land and Iron Co., operating iron furnaces between the rivers, have finally uncovered what is known as the "Bell" vein and find that it is fully 4 to 4 1/2 feet in thickness, and a very superior quality of coking coal. We understand that Messrs Blue & Nunn, the attorneys for the Bell estate in Crittenden county, have disposed of the "Bells Mine" to Mr C. H. Wilson, who will probably transfer it to the Hillman's. A railroad to the Ohio is also contemplated from that point, and a line of barges established for coal carrying, both on the Tradewater river and the Ohio. The citizens of Sturgis are quite jubilant over the event.

The distance from Marion to Chicago is, according to the Illinois Central folders, precisely the same as from Brookport, opposite Paducah. The Illinois Central owns the line from Brookport to Chicago, the mileage passenger rates are precisely the same, but the freight rates on fluor spar, of which we ship ten times the quantity that is loaded at Brookport, is just one dollar per ton higher from Marion than from that town on the Illinois side of the Ohio river to most of the principal points shipped to. A comparison is made here between the tariff on the Illinois side of the Ohio river and that on the Kentucky side, the rate being in cents per hundred pounds:

Illinois Side.	Ky. Side.
Chicago.....	8.....13
Cincinnati.....	8.....13
Pittsburg.....	12.....17
Chester, Pa.....	18.....23
New York.....	15.....20
Detroit.....	14.....19
Louisville.....	6.....11
East St. Louis.....	5.....10

The rate sheet gives the producers of fluor spar on the Illinois side of the river practically a bonus of one dollar per ton over the Kentucky shipper, and there's nothing square about it. It's worth more, of course, to live and do business in Kentucky, but a pound of spar weighs just the same in both States, 16 ounces, and the hauling costs just the same. Equalize the rates, Mr. General Traffic Manager, and don't play favorites.

A telegram has been received here stating that the United States district court at Cincinnati had reversed Judge Evans of the Federal court of the district of West Kentucky at Paducah, in the case of Langenbeck and Morton vs. James & James, Moore and Moore and Roberts and Clark. The suit was for possession of the Mann farm in Livingston county.

The plaintiffs claimed to have a lease given prior to that of the defendants. While the case was on trial here Judge Evans gave peremptory instructions for the plaintiffs and Roberts and Clark appealed to the United States supreme court as above stated.

Judge James Campbell represented Roberts and Clark. The land in question is very valuable, containing fine mineral ores. The case was bitterly contested and the principals to the suit spent considerable money in the courts. News-Democrat, Paducah.

The concentrating plant at the Kentucky Fluorspar company's works in Marion, built by C. C. Mathey, of Aurora, Mo., is one of the best examples of clean cut automatic machinery that Mathey ever designed and constructed. Taking the mixed product, fluor spar, galena and calcite, it delivers to the grinders perfectly clean and dry fluor spar, of as near 100 per cent. fluoride of calcium as nature puts up, the lead ore goes to its proper bin, while the calcite and refuse is deposited in the road way around the mill. About one ton of galena daily, running about 80 per cent. of lead is turned out and some 50 tons of the finest quality of fluor spar.

The present tariff makes no provision for an import duty on zinc ores. The recent purchases of this ore in British Columbia for reduction in our Kansas smelters may have a tendency to depress values on this side of the boundary line. Anyhow the cannoke ought to pay something in the way of an import duty for the privilege of selling in so high priced a market as compared with their own.

The Salem Miner was received on the regular issue day. It has two or three illustrations of the Old Jim mine, as well as one of the series of pictures of the Bonanza mine, that it has been running for some weeks. The face of old man Uren was recognized in one of the Old Jim cuts, although he has changed greatly since we saw him last in print. This issue of the Miner has some excellent advice about the folly of making extravagant statements regarding the richness of mines and ores, and we sincerely hope these suggestions will be lived up to hereafter.

If the Illinois Central and the other Evansville-Chicago railroads would announce their Chicago excursion rates and rates outside of the limits of Evansville, it would add many passengers to their trains. We do not all see the Evansville Courier, or the Evansville News, much as we regret such a state of affairs. This section of Kentucky is largely interested in fat beavers, fat hogs, and big muttuns. The lower rates made for the International Livestock Show at the Union Stock Yards last week ought to have been made known more generally.

The Mineral Point Zinc company commenced very systematic zinc mining in the deep shaft at the Memphis mine the latter part of the week. Three sets of miners working in shifts of eight hours, were put to sinking. The ground brought up shows handsomely in zinc sulphide, and affords additional proof that at various depths depending largely upon the contour of the country, the fluor spar zone is passed and zinc and lead ores fill the fissures, instead of fluor spar.

It is understood that Thomas Jones, of the Mineral Point Zinc company, was in Port Townsend, Washington, the custom headquarters for that district recently, making arrangements to pass the first consignment of 150 tons of British Columbia zinc to their Kansas smelters. As soon as the ruling is made on the import duty further shipments will be made, and no doubt the British Columbia zinc production will have a tendency to stay further advances in our ores.

Mrs. J. M. Persons, with her little daughter, of Mineral Point, Wisconsin, wife of the mining superintendent of the Columbia Mining company, arrived in Marion on Sunday. It is Mr. Person's intention to make Marion his permanent home. We congratulate him on such a decision.

A trust deed has been recorded in both Crittenden and Livingston county from the Marion Zinc company to the Central Trust company of Cleveland, Ohio, covering the Zinc company's property in both counties to secure the payment of an issue of $100,000 in bonds. This acts as a first mortgage on all leases and fees owned and controlled by the Marion Zinc company. The proceeds of these bonds will likely be used for extending mining work and the erection of separating plants at their Riley and Belt mines.

A meeting was held in Marion Monday evening for the purpose of incorporating the Wilson Mining company. The incorporators are John W. Wilson, Clem S. Nunn, Harry Haynes, John W. Blue, R. W. Wilson and P. S. Maxwell. The property of the company consists of that portion of the Columbia vein traversing the Wilson land near Crittenden Springs. Openings on the vein have been made in two places and shafts will be sunk at these points.

Three shifts of miners were put to work sinking in the main shaft of the Columbia mine on Friday last. The ground raised looks as if it would yield fully 60 per cent. of ore. The depth at the time these 8 hour shifts were started was 146 feet. It is stated by old miners who were in this shaft at the closing down of the work years ago, that at that time a depth of 165 feet had been made, and that the last 30 feet was practically a mass of lead ore.

Mr. H. H. Sayres the well known coal operator of the Pennsylvania fields, with Mrs. Sayres and their little son and daughter, will make their home at the New Marion hotel until a suitable residence can be found for their occupancy. Mr. Sayres is the Superintendent of the new United States Coal company that recently purchased the property of the Paducah Coal company at Sturgis for $400,000.

The Salem Miner in its last issue referring to Col. Hendricks' idea of merging the mining interests of this section into one corporation, says that the PRESS is not told everything that "our shippers and producers know." We are very thankful we are not told everything that the shippers and producers across the county line know; still, after all, it would not take up much space, would it?

Reports from Harrison, Ark., state that shipments of zinc ores are being made from that section. A contract has been let for a railroad extending 48 miles north of Buffalo city. At the latter place the railroad is about completed, and a large quantity of zinc ore has been purchased by Nelson H. Snow and will be shipped at once. Mining and prospecting throughout northern Arkansas is being carried on much more extensively than ever before.

A suggestion is made that the Mann mine be put up and raffled off and avoid a lingering and long suffering law suit. It already has claimants enough for the property to take most of the tickets, and the remainder could be given to the Hopkinsville Asylum. The shafts alone on this property, if taken out and cut up and retailed as post holes for fences would bring quite a tidy sum of money.

Old man Uren, of Old Jim, was in for church service on Sunday. He hasn't changed so greatly as that out in the Salem Miner would indicate.

A Forward Movement.

There's not any too much time to get our ores selected and in shape for the St. Louis Exposition. The exhibit of our fluor spar will command the admiration of the hundreds of thousands of visitors to the Mining building while our very high carbonate and sulphide ores of zinc and lead will delight and surprise those not familiar with our Western Kentucky district. Let's get a move on us.

A mass of practically pure Jack fully 1500 pounds in weight, was dislodged the other day on the East vein of the Old Jim mine. We would suggest taking such cracker-Jacks to the St. Louis Exposition. Jack when mined carrying 60 per cent. zinc would be a curiosity in any mining camp. A 1500 pounder of such a grade would certainly receive several blue ribbons.

Jack is cutting out the fluor spar in the Yandell deep shaft at 115 feet. The Yandell has been and is now one of our most noted fluor spar producers. Zinc ores taking the place of fluor spar in this district may be all wrong, so far as the geologists figure it out, nevertheless it keeps on doing it just the same.

We are informed that Mr F. Julius Fohs has been appointed to a position of importance on the Marion Zinc company's field force with a very handsome salary attached. Mr. Fohs' well known energy, combined with his mineralogical knowledge, will make his services of great value to this company.

The Illinois Central engineering corps are making soundings on this side of the Ohio river, opposite Cave-in-Rock, for the pier foundations on which the big bridge will be constructed. The Illinois Central, St. Louis-Nashville short line via Crittenden Springs and Marion will cross the Ohio river on this bridge.

The following prices are the selling prices per ton, loaded in car lots at Marion:
Carbonate of Zinc 35 per cent.....	$ 8.00

The Cumberland Courier, in its efforts to obtain a core drill for prospect work in Livingston county, is receiving the support of nearly every well posted miner in the county. The Courier has a practical way of doing things that can not be commended too strongly.

The Miner says: "Incorporate Salem;" well, we should say so; of course incorporate her; there's nothing like incorporation papers to make a place grow. We have seen in our time a four dollar farm incorporated into a $200,000 mining company, and the writer was one of the stockholders.

In the metal market lead continues quiet and unchanged. Spelter is quiet and again shows slightly lower quotations. The high values made for several months past are apparently at an end, and the metal is settling down to its normal price.

Place a piece of carbonate of ammonia about the size of a walnut in the drill hole before the shot is fired and it will kill the dynamite gas. This is a good thing to do where the smoke hangs after shooting a hole and it will prevent many a headache.

Fire clay mining in Livingston county has ceased for the winter. The plants of the Western Tube company and that of Col Moodie's near Smithland will resume on a more extensive scale in the spring. Probably the production of fire brick will be taken up at that time.

An ore buyer writes the PRESS from Breslau, asking about the output of lead and zinc ores from this district, and what tonnage, monthly, could be obtained for shipment via New Orleans in the hold of cotton carrying vessels.

Mr. Nelson H. Snow of Mineral Point, Wisconsin, arrived on Sunday morning. As has been the case during the past two years the thermometer took a decided drop the next day.

The sinking of the working shaft on the Lucile mine is progressing favorably. The indications are that in a fortnight at most the dip of the 12 foot fluor spar vein will be reached.

Considerable excitement exists at Gracey, Ky., over valuable lead and zinc deposits that have been uncovered on land hitherto of but little value in or near that place.

It is evident that but very few people in the United States agree with Walter Evans, of Paducah.

Oh, Mr. Lawyers,
Do you think it true
That the Superior court
Has gone back on you?

HEAVY SENTENCE

For Charles Culver, the Lola Safe Blower.

Charles Culver, alias "Spotty Wing," the notorious Cincinnati crook, was given sixteen years in the state prison for blowing Johnson Bros. safe at Lola last summer, in the Livingston circuit court. The trial began Thursday and the case was given to the jury Saturday afternoon; after five and one half hours deliberation a verdict was returned.

A wrapper from a bar of soap which was found near Johnson Bros. safe, led to his arrest. It was proven that Culver bought a bar of soap of that kind from a drug store in Lola, the pay before the robbery. The soap was used in blowing the safe. Culver was arrested at Evansville and taken to Smithland. He is a widely known crook, and has served a sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for safe blowing.

The case against Ernest Elmen dorf, Culver's accomplice, was continued.

OUR OWN FOLKS.

Gugenheim's Latest Story—Miss Laura Miles Goes to Indiana—Mr. Bard in the Lecture Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Yandell to Visit California—Marion People Visit Evansville, and What They Done There.

Sam Gugenheim is still on the sick list. His suite of apartments near the terminus of Primrose Alley in the Palace flats is visited by hosts of his personal friends, with their arms filled with dainties to help him pass the long hours. Sam's friends comprise about 99 per cent. of our population, the other one per cent. having moved away. The following is his very latest story:

Two prosperous and business like appearing Jews met on the street and after exchanging the courtesies of the day, one said to the other: "Ignace, I have a premonition that I am going to die very soon. I feel very queerly about it."

"Nonsense," said Moses, "you are a hale, hearty man; how old are you?"

"I am not quite sixty, yet I am very sure I am going to die soon."

"Oh that's all hosh; you are sure to live to eighty."

"Now look here, Ignace, I am a business man, you are a business man, and He," pointing upward to the sky, "He is a business man. Why should He wait to take me at 80 when He can get me now at 60?"

Will B. Yandell, the senior of the dry goods house of Yandell-Gugenheim Co., will leave for Southern California, accompanied by Mrs. Yandell, on the first of January. Their stay will depend somewhat on the business situation after the new year. If Mr. Yandell should happen to receive a letter postmarked at Marion, stating that the entire force was kept on the jump and that business was never so prosperous he would at once decide that the blue skies and the green grass of California was all right for invalids, but a robust constitution needed the bracing air of Western Kentucky, especially the air in and around that big brick store on the corner, and Mr. Yandell would very likely carry out his personal sentiments and incidentally increase the Marion shopping trade by a large majority.

The courtesy and personal attention paid by Miss Laura Miles to the thousand and one demands made upon her by the countless telephonists of this section, has made her a prime favorite with everybody. Not to know Miss Miles by sight, or at least by voice is to count oneself unknown. Miss Laura, or to be more familiar, Miss Pigeon, has for many months been the means of communicating to us the joys and the sorrows of our absent friends, her very enunciation of "Here's a telegram for you," over the wire prepared one in a way for the reception of good news or the reverse.

Miss Laura will on the 15th of the month join her mother at their Indiana home, leaving the telephone business behind her, yet we understand that at a not very distant future Miss Miles, who will then be Miss Miles no longer, will ring up and say: "If you don't come to dinner right away you won't get any; so there!" Just as though he would ever be late for dinner then.

Several telegrams and one or two cablegrams have been received at this office enquiring upon what terms the senders could procure Mr. Wilhelm Bard for a series of lectures on the Mammoth Cave. It seems that new interest has been excited over this remarkable natural curiosity of Kentucky and that intense enthusiasm would be aroused by Professor Bard's appearance upon the lecture platform in both foreign and domestic cities, with "How to get to Mammoth Cave and What I Saw on the Way." This is a compliment to Crittenden county, and especially to the Professor, but we suppose he will still prefer to remain baldheaded at home.

Mr. Hudson of Paris, Tenn., or rather registering from that enterprising city, but whose interests in the Columbia mine here and in other sections of Kentucky have made him one with us, is in town. Mr. Hudson, it is said by several of our young ladies, has been making "goo goo" eyes to the opposite sex from the time he first landed at Crittenden Springs last summer, at intervals, of course, for Mr. Hudson sleeps some, but not much and rumor has it that those "goo goo's" have been returned, and that Mr. Hudson's prospects are looking better. We have a kodak picture taken of this gentleman, showing in the dim twilight of the verandas at Crittenden Springs a mass of flowers and laces in close proximity to his more robust form. There are no goo goo eyes about it either, but the developer doesn't seem to develop, and we suppose another masterpiece of art will be lost to the world.

Mr. Charles S. Knight, of the Marion Zinc company, was taken hold of by his old enemy, neuralgia, last week, and pounded and jammed, and punched, and tortured until life seemed a living death. We doubt if anything short of a favorable decision in the Mann mining case would have given him courage to have entertained the idea of leaving his bed. This tonic came at an opportune time and we are glad to hear that the gentleman is once more quite in his usual health.

Mr. Ben Brantley, the accomplished pharmacist in Woods' drug store, has suddenly developed a strong affinity for chewing gum, or wax, as we term it here. His particular brand is the "Tolu," and he is quite extravagant in its praise. There are several Tolus, though, and possibly the Tolu located on the Ohio river may contain within its borders the article that Ben terms the sweetest, dearest; but then we must limit these adjectives somewhere.

The characteristics of a number of Marionites were well illustrated at Evansville the other day. There were half a dozen or more that arrived at about the same time. Harry Watkins of course started off at a 2:18 gait to inspect a newly patented mining drill that was in operation over at Newburg. John Wilson and Dick Mayes wanted to buy all the horses and mules in sight, while Walter Walker and Alvis Stephens hustled down to the theater to secure a couple of good seats for the opera that evening. Jake Lennart took Col. Roberts by the arm and solemnly escorted him to a secluded spot at the Vendome and explained to him how at the last drawing his tickets were no good, and that he thought that a little sugar, and a little water, and a little whiskey would do his cold good, although as a matter of fact Jake hasn't had a cold in ten years, and he would have to move faster than he ever did at Crittenden Springs last summer to catch one. Then in came Copher, who had been over to Marion, Ills., for his thanksgiving, his face fairly beaming, for he had just made a purchase of a lot of delicacies at a saving of 20 per cent. and the whole push talked Marion Kentucky, and its future greatness to the Evansville crowd until you could see the green color of jealousy creeping over their countenances, for Evansville is considerable of a bustling town although it is 75 miles from Marion.

CURRENT EVENTS.

The Latest Happenings Over the World are Told Here.

The decline in the price of silver is causing trouble in the Far East and in Mexico. Our trade with Oriental ports is suffering greatly on account of the monetary situation. In Mexico the price of New York exchange is rising daily. Mexican planters and large land owners are opposing the movement toward a gold standard on the ground that it may result in increased wages for their laborers. Meanwhile corporations and railroads are suffering from present conditions.

Gen. Russell A. Alger, former Secretary of War, was recently sworn in as the successor of the late Senator McMillan, of Michigan.

A report from Guatemala City says the Coroner decided that William A. Fitzgerald, who was killed by Godfrey Hunter, Jr., was shot from behind.

An increased appropriation for Government expenses for the fiscal year of 1904 is asked by Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw in his annual report. The available cash balance on hand, including the gold reserve, is the greatest in the country's history. An increase in imports of over $80,000,000 and a decrease in exports of $100,000,000 during the last fiscal year are noted in the report.

The House passed the bill appropriating $60,000 to bear the expenses of the miners' strike commission.

Senor Sagasta, the Spanish Premier, has resigned. His retirement was caused by the action of the Chamber of Deputies, which cast a vote of censure for one of members of his Cabinet.

The Senate Committee on Territories reported a partisan measure providing for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory to the Union as a single State under the name of Oklahoma. The claims of Arizona and New Mexico to statehood were rejected by the committee.

The next congress of the United States will be without a single representative who claims to be a Populist. There will be no Populist in either branch. Twelve years ago there were eight Populists elected to the house, while at different times there were a scattering few in the Senate. The next house of representatives will be composed of 208 Republicans and 78 Democrats, giving the former a majority of 30 members.

In a fire at the Lincoln Hotel, 176 Madison street, Chicago, fourteen persons lost their lives. Most of the victims died from suffocation.

Latest information from Guatemala is that 3,000 persons were killed by the eruption of the Santo Maria volcano.

At Denver Mayor Wright and several Aldermen were sentenced to serve four months in jail for contempt of court for disregarding an injunction by Judge Mullins to restrain the enactment of a street railway franchise ordinance. They will appeal the case and a ten days stay of execution has been granted.

The coming winter promises to be the hardest ever experienced by the English laboring classes. Already more than half a million workmen are out of employment. Reports of terrible destitution in the poorer quarters of London are finding their way into the newspapers in great numbers. The gloomy outlook is made darker by the prospect that shipbuilders are contemplating a test of strength with trades unions.

DECEMBER WEATHER.

Hicks' Predictions for the Month.
Storm Central on 25th.

In all reasonable probability, a wide and general cold wave will spread over the country from the 9th to the 12th.

A regular storm period is central on the 14th, covering the 12th to the 17th. The disturbances of this period will reach a crisis within forty-eight hours of the time of full moon on the 14th, naturally after rather than before that hour. During this period many very decided winter storms will visit the North Atlantic ocean, making navigation perilous and unpleasant. In fact, a long and severe spell of storms and storminess, especially on the seas, and along the northern coasts, will set in about this time and continue well through the remainder of the month. Very decided blizzards in the north and west will be very natural on and about the 14th and 15th. Behind these storms look for a very high barometer, with severe winter gales from the northwest and cold wave that will be felt in varying degrees to the Southern coast.

All through this part of the month continued tendency to winter storms will prevail but a marked return to storm conditions may be expected about the 19th to 21st. On the 21st these reactional storms will culminate in possible winter thunder, wind and rain, especially in the south, but it will be wise to look for a sudden change to snow, sleet and freezing, as the center of the low barometer works well to the east.

The last storm period for December and the year 1902 is central on Christmas day, the 25th. Storms of this period may have developed in Western section by the 25th, but central an eastern parts of the country will most likely have fair and moderate weather Christmas day. From about Friday, the 26th, to the 29th, rain and snow will advance eastward, quite across the country, leaving very cold weather behind them, over most of the country as the month goes out.

Gugenheim's Latest Story—Miss Laura Miles Goes to Indiana—Mr. Bard in the Lecture Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Yandell to Visit California—Marion People Visit Evansville, and What They Done There.

Sam Gugenheim is still on the sick list. His suite of apartments near the terminus of Primrose Alley in the Palace flats is visited by hosts of his personal friends, with their arms filled with dainties to help him pass the long hours. Sam's friends comprise about 99 per cent. of our population, the other one per cent. having moved away. The following is his very latest story:

Two prosperous and business like appearing Jews met on the street and after exchanging the courtesies of the day, one said to the other: "Ignace, I have a premonition that I am going to die very soon. I feel very queerly about it."

"Nonsense," said Moses, "you are a hale, hearty man; how old are you?"

"I am not quite sixty, yet I am very sure I am going to die soon."

"Oh that's all bosh; you are sure to live to eighty."

"Now look here, Ignace, I am a business man, you are a business man, and He," pointing upward to the sky, "He is a business man. Why should He wait to take me at 80 when He can get me now at 60?"

Will B. Yandell, the senior of the dry goods house of Yandell, Gugenheim Co., will leave for Southern California, accompanied by Mrs. Yandell, on the first of January. Their stay will depend somewhat on the business situation after the new year. If Mr. Yandell should happen to receive a letter postmarked at Marion, stating that the entire force was kept on the jump and that business was never so prosperous he would at once decide that the blue skies and the green grass of California was all right for invalids, but a robust constitution needed the bracing air of Western Kentucky, especially the air in and around that big brick store on the corner, and Mr. Yandell would very likely carry out his personal sentiments and incidentally increase the Marion shopping trade by a large majority.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

Caleb Powers Gets New Trial—Revenue Collection—The State Primary—Farmers After Tobacco Trust.

Produce dealers of Gallatin and Portland, Tenn., and Franklin and Seftsville, Ky., have formed a combine to control the poultry business over a large area of Tennessee and Southern Kentucky.

The National Association of Fair and Exhibitions, in session at Chicago, fixed September 21 to 26 as the date of the Kentucky State Fair.

Judge W. S. Pryor, the Hon. Lewis McQuown and Judge John A. Fulton will represent the Democratic State Executive Committee in the injunction suit filed by Committee Chairman Meacham against the State Central committee to enjoin them from holding a State primary election. He alleges that the call is illegal and void, a usurpation of power, he also alleges that Allie W. Young and a majority of the Committee have conspired with certain candidates for State officers to hold an illegal primary. The case is to be tried before Judge Cantrell on December 16th.

An announcement of interest to Kentucky people generally is the engagement of Miss Laura Henry Jones, of Cartersville, Ga., and Mr. David McCaw Flournoy, of Paducah, Ky. The marriage will take at Roselawn, the home of the bride in Cartersville, on Dec. 31. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Sam Jones, her father being the famous evangelist.

The annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shows that the total tax collected on spirits during the fiscal year ending June 30 last, with which period the report treats, was $121,138,013.13. The tax collected on tobacco was $51,737,923; on fermented liquor, $71,989,902. Kentucky paid tax on 33,240,800 lbs. of tobacco, being excelled in this by only two states—Missouri and North Carolina. Kentucky made 31,297,730 pounds plug tobacco, 153,090 pounds of fine cut, 1,791,980 pounds of smoking and 17,573 pounds of snuff, and the stamps for this cost $3,631,278.

The union and non-union elements in Stargis are still at war. The latest move is on the part of the latter, who have ordered all telephones of the Morganfield Telephone company out of their business houses and dwelling to take effect December 1st. The alleged grounds for this action is that Manager Bradburn, of the local service, is in sympathy with the union. They at first demanded his discharge by the company, but this was refused. It is the opinion that this action will cause the installation of the Cumberland Telephone company, which has heretofore been denied a franchise.

THE STATE PRIMARY.

Commenting on the decision of the Democratic Executive committee of the state to have nominees for State offices selected by primary, editor J. M. Richardson, who may justly be termed the champion of the primary movement, says in his paper, the Glasgow Times:

"Elsewhere in the Times will be found the proceedings of the state executive committee calling for the nomination of state officers by a Democratic primary to be held on Saturday, May 9th. The decision is a distinct triumph for the people.

It places the nomination of every state official right where it justly belongs—in the hands of the voters themselves.

It does away with the trickeries heart-burnings, soreness and trad-

ings of conventions.

It compels fairness and honesty as all primary election frauds can be punished by the law exactly as in regular elections.

It puts the professional politician out of business.

It breaks every slate.

It smashes all machines.

It puts the entire responsibility for every nomination upon those who do the nominating.

Fairly and honestly held—and it will be fairly and honestly held—it insures an old time Democratic majority in 1903.

The State Executive committee, and the Democratic majority as well, is to be congratulated on the forward step last Tuesday.

PLURALITY 35,376.

The State Board of Election Commissioners, composed of Chas. R. Poyntz, of Maysville; Geo. W. Long, of Litchfield, and Sam J. Shackelford, of Frankfort, have canvassed the returns and issued certificates to the various successful candidates.

A comparison of the returns show that a total of 229,499 was cast in the State and that a Democratic plurality of 35,376 votes is registered. Allowing 10,000 votes off for a failure to poll the Republican vote in the Fourth congressional district, in which Smith had no opposition, the Democratic plurality would be 25,143 votes. The total is nearly 200,000 less than that cast in 1900.

Secretary Hubert Vreeland tabulated the returns, following which the certificates of election were signed by the Commissioners and have been forwarded to the various successful candidates.

Going After the Tobacco Trust.

Trigg county farmers are going after the English-American Tobacco combine in earnest. Rev. D. E. Bentley, well known in this county, is leading the fight, and is being warmly supported. The following call is taken from the Cadiz Record:

Come 1,000, 2,000, 3,000 strong to Cadiz on 2nd Monday in December—County Court day. Assemble in the circuit court room at 11 a. m. Come prepared and determined to organize for business. The Tobacco Grower's Federation. Come to hear, to listen, to think and to act. The writer will meet and greet you, there.

Backed by a closely studied and carefully written address, he will present for your consideration resolutions and a plan, by adoption of which he hopes to aid you in holding your own with the English-American Tobacco combine. Buyers and handlers of tobacco, merchants and business men generally are invited to be present.

D. E. BENTLEY.

GETS NEW TRIAL.

The court of appeals, Justice O'Rear writing the opinion, handed down a decision last week reversing for the second time the judgment of the Scott county circuit court sentencing Caleb Powers to life imprisonment for the murder of Governor Gosnell.

The chief grounds for the reversal are the refusal of Judge Cantrell to vacate the bench on an affidavit of Powers that he could not get a fair trial in his court and the admission of alleged incompetent testimony.

White, Paynter and Hobson dissented, but did not hand down written opinion.

Boston, Walker & Co. carry a complete line of coffins and caskets. A handsome hearse for burial occasions.

REV. B. F. MCMICAN

Writes to His Friends Through The Press.

MORGANTOWN, KY.—Mr. Walter Walker, Marion, Ky.: I desire through the PRESS to let my friends know where I am and what I am doing, and that I have never forgotten them or never will. I love the people of Crittenden and Marion. I love every spot in the town and county. Though I am away, my mind often goes back to the cheerful faces and warm hearts of the people of Marion.

I left Marion nearly four years ago. Moved to Dawson, thence to Providence. I came to Morgantown from Providence in May, and took charge of three churches and two missions. We found a number of dead churches. I went to work in earnest and God has blessed my efforts. All the churches are taking on new life and this bids fair to be a splendid work.

We have just closed a great revival here. There were 34 conversions. The meeting was in progress two weeks. Rev. J. T. Barbee, of Greenville, was with me ten days.

Morgantown is a quiet little town on Green River, the county seat of Butler county. We never have found a more generous, open hearted people. They are ever ready to help us. We thought when we left Marion that we never would find as many friends as we had there. It was hard to leave our old home, the town we love so dearly. In our silent meditation we remember Uncle Joe Adams in the prayer meetings, and the happy hours we spent with him and a few other faithful ones. The earnest words of my many friends, "You must preach, Ben; why don't you go at it." This comes to my ears today and thank God I heeded the advice, and had stepped out on the promises of the Lord. The four years have been the happiest of my life. I have witnessed hundreds of conversions. May God bless everybody in Marion and Crittenden county.

Your friend,
B. F. McMicen.

A HERO.

"Oh, how cold!" escaped my lips as I stumbled through the door of a miserable attic tenement house, says a writer in Watchman.

The mother was out, but her twelve-year-old boy was mounted guard over the other children as they played about the poorly furnished room. I shivered as the wind whistled through the broken window panes, causing me to pull my overcoat over my ears. The boy was in his shirt sleeves, but I refrained from asking questions as to the whereabouts of his coat in case its absence might have been the means of providing a crust of bread for the fatherless family.

"Are you not cold, my boy?" I asked. "No," he said, "not very." Yet I noticed how his pretty pearly teeth chattered. I waited awhile and spoke to him; then I took a look into the cradle where, sleeping quietly and comfortably, the baby lay covered with the boy's coat. Talk about men who face a cannon! In the heat of passion they will do anything. But here was a hero, on a bitter cold day, in his shirt sleeves because he wanted to shield his little brother from the biting effect of a cold February wind.

Men say the age of heroism is past. It is false. So long as the nation raises boys like this one she has within herself the germs of a boyhood that will keep her forever in the very forefront of the world's history.

GREAT AMERICAN DEAD.

Ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed Died in Washington Sunday.

Thomas Brackett Reed former Speaker of the House of Representatives, and for many years prominent in the affairs of the nation, died early Sunday morning at the Arlington Hotel in Washington. He suffered from Bright's Disease, and a complication of other ailments. Mr. Reed arrived hale and hearty in Washington last Sunday and attended the opening of the House session on Monday. On the evening of the latter day he complained of illness, and on Tuesday went to bed, on the advice of his physician. Mr. Reed served in Congress, from 1877 to 1899. He was Speaker of the House three terms.

CENTER OF POPULATION

Of United States Near Columbus, Indiana.

The site has been located for the monument to be erected at the center of the population of the United States. The center of population is in Henry Mar's barnyard, six miles from Columbus, Bartholomew county, Indiana, and a marker will be erected on the public road nearby to attract the attention of passers to the exact center.

The marker will be three and one-half feet high, three feet wide and twenty inches thick, and on it will be chiseled an inscription showing why it was erected and the exact location, which is 3,400 feet northeast. The monument will be erected in the center and bear the inscription, "Center of Population 1900."

TRIBUTE TO WOMEN.

Bob Burdette pays the following tribute to women:

"True she can not sharpen a pencil; outside of commercial circles she can't tie a package to resemble anything save crooked sections of shoes; but land of miracles, see what she can do with a pin! She can't walk so many miles around a pool table with nothing to drink, but she can walk all night with a fretful baby. She can ride 500 miles without going into the smoking car to get a rest and get away from the children. She can endure the distraction of the house full of children all day, while her husband sends them to bed before he has been home an hour. A boy with a sister is fortunate; a fellow with a cousin is to be envied; a young man with a sweetheart is happy, and a man with a good wife is blessed more than them all.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

Caleb Powers Gets New Trial—Revenue Collection—The State Primary—Farmers After Tobacco Trust.

Produce dealers of Gallatin and Portland, Tenn., and Franklin and Scottsville, Ky., have formed a combine to control the poultry business over a large area of Tennessee and Southern Kentucky.

The National Association of Fair and Exhibitions, in session at Chicago, fixed September 21 to 26 as the date of the Kentucky State Fair.

Judge W. S. Pryor, the Hon. Lewis McQuown and Judge John A. Fulton will represent the Democratic State Executive Committee in the injunction suit filed by Committeeman Meacham against the State Central committee to enjoin them from holding a State primary election. He alleges that the call is illegal and void, a usurpation of power, he also alleges that Allie W. Young and a majority of the Committee have conspired with certain candidates for State officers to hold an illegal primary. The case is to be tried before Judge Cantrill on December 16th.

An announcement of interest to Kentucky people generally is the engagement of Miss Lania Henry Jones of Cartersville, Ga., and Mr. David McCaw Flournoy, of Paducah, Ky. The marriage will take at Roselawn, the home of the bride in Cartersville, on Dec. 31. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Sam Jones, her father being the famous evangelist.

The annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shows that the total tax collected on spirits during the fiscal year ending June 30 last, with which period the report treats, was $121,138,013.13. The tax collected on tobacco was $51,737,923; on fermented liquor, $71,989,902. Kentucky paid tax on 33,240,800 lbs. of tobacco, being excelled in this by only two states—Missouri and North Carolina. Kentucky made 31,297,730 pounds plug tobacco, 153,090 pounds of fine cut, 1,791,989 pounds of smoking and 17,573 pounds of snuff, and the stamps for this cost $3,631,278.

The union and non-union elements in Sturgis are still at war. The latest move is on the part of the latter, who have ordered all telephones of the Morganfield Telephone company out of their business houses and dwelling to take effect December 1st. The alleged grounds for this action is that Manager Bradburn, of the local service, is in sympathy with the union. They at first demanded his discharge by the company, but this was refused. It is the opinion that this action will cause the installation of the Cumberland Telephone company, which has heretofore been denied a franchise.

THE STATE PRIMARY.

Commenting on the decision of the Democratic Executive committee of the state to have nominees for State offices selected by primary, editor J. M. Richardson, who may justly be termed the champion of the primary movement, says in his paper, the Glasgow Times:

"Elsewhere in the Times will be found the proceedings of the state executive committee calling for the nomination of state officers by a Democratic primary to be held on Saturday, May 9th. The decision is a distinct triumph for the people.

It places the nomination of every state official right where it justly belongs—in the hands of the voters themselves.

It does away with the trickeries heart-burnings, soreness and trad-

ings of conventions.

It compels fairness and honesty as all primary election frauds can be punished by the law exactly as in regular elections.

It puts the professional politician out of business.

It breaks every slate

It smashes all machines.

It puts the entire responsibility for every nomination upon those who do the nominating.

Fairly and honestly held—and it will be fairly and honestly held—it insures an old time Democratic majority in 1903.

The State Executive committee, and the Democratic majority as well, is to be congratulated on the forward step last Tuesday.

PLURALITY 35,376.

The State Board of Election Commissioners, composed of Chas. R. Poyntz, of Maysville; Geo. W. Long, of Litchfield, and Sam J. Shackleford, of Frankfort, have canvassed the returns and issued certificates to the various successful candidates.

A comparison of the returns show that a total of 229,499 was cast in the State and that a Democratic plurality of 35,376 votes is registered. Allowing 10,000 votes off for a failure to poll the Republican vote in the Fourth congressional district; in which Smith had no opposition, the Democratic plurality would be 25,143 votes. The total is nearly 200,000 less than that cast in 1900.

Secretary Hubert Vreeland tabulated the returns, following which the certificates of election were signed by the Commissioners and have been forwarded to the various successful candidates.

Going After the Tobacco Trust.

Trigg county farmers are going after the English-American Tobacco combine in earnest. Rev. D. E. Bentley, well known in this county, is leading the fight, and is being warmly supported. The following call is taken from the Cadiz Record:

Come 1,000, 2,000, 3,000 strong to Cadiz on 2nd Monday in December—County Court day. Assemble in the circuit court room at 11 a. m. Come prepared and determined to organize for business. The Tobacco Grower's Federation. Come to hear, to listen, to think and to act. The writer will meet and greet you there.

Backed by a closely studied and carefully written address, he will present for your consideration resolutions and a plan, by adoption of which he hopes to aid you in holding your own with the English-American Tobacco combine. Buyers and handlers of tobacco, merchants and business men generally are invited to be present.

D. E. BENTLEY.

GETS NEW TRIAL.

The court of appeals, Justice O'Rear writing the opinion, handed down a decision last week reversing for the second time the judgment of the Scott county circuit court sentencing Caleb Powers to life imprisonment for the murder of Governor Goebel.

The chief grounds for the reversal are the refusal of Judge Cantrill to vacate the bench on an affidavit of Powers that he could not get a fair trial in his court and the admission of alleged incompetent testimony.

White, Paynter and Hobson dissented, but did not hand down written opinion.

Boston, Walker & Co. carry a complete line of coffins and caskets. A handsome hearse for burial occasions.

REV. B. F. MCMICAN

Writes to His Friends Through The Press.

MORGANTOWN, KY.—Mr. Walter Walker, Marion, Ky.: I desire through the Press to let my friends know where I am and what I am doing, and that I have never forgotten them or never will. I love the people of Crittenden and Marion. I love every spot in the town and county. Though I am away, my mind often goes back to the cheerful faces and warm hearts of the people of Marion.

I left Marion nearly four years ago. Moved to Dawson, thence to Providence. I came to Morgantown from Providence in May, and took charge of three churches and two missions. We found a number of dead churches. I went to work in earnest and God has blessed my efforts. All the churches are taking on new life and this bids fair to be a splendid work.

We have just closed a great revival here. There were 34 conversions. The meeting was in progress two weeks. Rev. J. T. Barbee, of Greenville, was with me ten days.

Morgantown is a quiet little town on Green River, the county seat of Butler county. We never have found a more generous, open hearted people. They are ever ready to help us. We thought when we left Marion that we never would find as many friends as we had there. It was hard to leave our old home, the town we love so dearly. In our silent meditation we remember Uncle Joe Adams in the prayer meetings, and the happy hours we spent with him and a few other faithful ones. The earnest words of my many friends, "You must preach, Ben; why don't you go at it?" This comes to my ears today and thank God I heeded the advice, and had stepped out on the promises of the Lord. [The four years have been the happiest of my life. I have witnessed hundreds of conversions. May God bless everybody in Marion and Crittenden county.]

ANNOUNCEMENT.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE.
We are authorized to announce
T. EVERETT BUTLER

a candidate for Representative from Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

O'Brien and Whitney, the two youthful burglars who are charged with the murder of A. B. Chinn of Lexington, were given the death penalty.

The school authorities of Boston are considering a plan for separating the white and negro pupils in that city. The children of both races have heretofore attended the same schools. There is a strong prejudice against the system on the part of both whites and negroes. The negroes want separate schools, where their children will not be treated as inferiors, while the motives of the white citizens are obvious.

A HUMAN CURIOSITY.
Dual Heads and Bodies—Four Arms and But Two Legs.

Near Dycusburg, on Friday, Dec. 5th, a child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis. The boy, or boys, from its waist upward, consisted of two perfectly formed bodies, two heads and four arms, with but two legs. It was the first born and weighed fully 10 pounds. The child expired at birth.

Medical science fails to account for such dual children, and in the case of the Siamese twins it was not until a post mortem had been held that any certainty existed as to their anatomy.

CHRISTMAS ATTRACTION
The Famous Hawthorne Musical Club to Appear Here.

The management of the opera house has just closed a contract with the Central Lyceum Bureau for an engagement with the noted Hawthorne Musical Club, of Boston, one of the most popular attractions on the road.

The company is the only one of its kind in America. It is composed of five highly gifted artists. The program consists of marvelous instrumental and vocal music, a series of splendid character impersonations, comic sketches and other novelties. In presenting the descriptive selections the company appears in suitable costumes. Over thirty different musical instruments are used at every performance, including the xylophone, tubophone, ocarina, glassophone, and other new instruments.

The company appears at the opera house on the evening of Dec. 27th. It is one of the Lyceum's greatest attractions, and is always sent out under a heavy guarantee. Seats will be placed on sale this week, and unless the advance sale is good the engagement will be canceled on Dec. 23d, for unless a large crowd is insured the management cannot afford to bring such an expensive attraction to the city. The organization never fails to delight an audience.

CHURCH BAZAAR.
The Bazaar to be held at the opera house Thursday, Dec. 19th, under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist church promises to be a success, viewed from any standpoint. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event. A world of attractive and desirable articles will be offered for sale. You could hardly find a better place to secure your Christmas gifts. All kinds of toys and ready dressed dolls, suitable gifts for mother, sister, brother, father and sweetheart will be found at the bazaar. Delicious Christmas candy will be sold. Supper will be served.

There will be many attractions for the little folks, such as Mother Goose and her children, Jack Horner's Pie, and a Doll Show. The prices will be most reasonable, and the bazaar deserves and will receive a large patronage.

MISS SALLIE SUMMERS TAKES THE LEAD!

Doubled Her Vote During the Week—Miss Maggie Franks Second.

ONLY TWO WEEKS UNTIL THE CLOSE!

There is a change in the leadership in THE PRESS Popularity Contest again this week.

Miss Sallie Summers, of Livingston county, the pretty daughter of Hon. James R. Summers, is first in the race. She has doubled her vote. Last week she was fourth in strength. This clearly shows how impossible it is to tell one week who will lead the next week.

Miss Maggie Franks, the leader last week, is only four votes behind Miss Summers. Miss Davis and Mrs. Duvall have reached the hundred mark.

At this stage in last year's contest the race had been given over to Misses Moore and Nunn, who were far ahead of all others. This year it is different. Four contestants are almost equal in strength and a number of others have excellent chances for winning in the end.

The total vote of the present contest at this time exceeds the total vote of last year's contest at this period of the race. Naturally the interest is increasing as the end draws near. The voting grows heavier every day. The biggest vote of the contest was polled this week.

Next Tuesday another count of the ballots will be made by the PRESS and then the ballot box will be locked and the keys given to the gentlemen who will make the final count on Wednesday, Dec. 24th.

If you want your favorite to win you must work for the victory will not be easily won.

The following is the result of the of the last count:

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce
T. EVERETT BUTLER

a candidate for Representative from Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

O'Brien and Whitney, the two youthful burglars who are charged with the murder of A. B. Chinn of Lexington, were given the death penalty.

The school authorities of Boston are considering a plan for separating the white and negro pupils in that city. The children of both races have heretofore attended the same schools. There is a strong prejudice against the system on the part of both whites and negroes. The negroes want separate schools, where their children will not be treated as inferiors, while the motives of the white citizens are obvious.

A HUMAN CURIOSITY.

Dual Heads and Bodies—Four Arms and But Two Legs.

Near Dycusburg, on Friday, Dec. 5th, a child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis. The boy, or boys, from its waist upward, consisted of two perfectly formed bodies, two heads and four arms, with but two legs. It was the first born and weighed fully 10 pounds. The child expired at birth.

Medical science fails to account for such dual children, and in the case of the Siamese twins it was not until a post mortem had been held that any certainty existed as to their anatomy.

CHRISTMAS ATTRACTION

The Famous Hawthorne Musical Club to Appear Here.

The management of the opera house has just closed a contract with the Central Lyceum Bureau for an engagement with the noted Hawthorne Musical Club, of Boston, one of the most popular attractions on the road.

The company is the only one of its kind in America. It is composed of five highly gifted artists. The program consists of marvelous instrumental and vocal music, a series of splendid character impersonations, comic sketches and other novelties. In presenting the descriptive selections the company appears in suitable costumes. Over thirty different musical instruments are used at every performance, including the xylophone, tubophone, ocarina, glassophone, and other new instruments.

The company appears at the opera house on the evening of Dec. 27th. It is one of the Lyceum's greatest attractions, and is always sent out under a heavy guarantee. Seats will be placed on sale this week, and unless the advance sale is good the engagement will be canceled on Dec. 23d, for unless a large crowd is assured the management can not afford to bring such an expensive attraction to the city. The organization never fails to delight an audience.

CHURCH BAZAAR.

The Bazaar to be held at the opera house Thursday, Dec. 19th, under the auspices of the ladies of the Methodist church promises to be a success, viewed from any standpoint. Elaborate preparations are being made for the event. A world of attractive and desirable articles will be offered for sale. You could hardly find a better place to secure your Christmas gifts. L. W. CRUCE Commissioner.

Commissioners Sale

Crittenden Circuit Court, Ky.
The Huber Mfg Co., Plaintiff.
Against J. H. Floyd etc., Defendant.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of the Crittenden Circuit Court, rendered at the June term thereof, 1902, in the above cause for the sum of $282.26 with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from the 12th day of January, 1903, until paid, and $50.25 costs herein, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court-house door in Marion to the highest bidder, at PUBLIC AUCTION, on Monday the 12th day of January, 1903, at 1 o'clock p. m., or there about, (being Court day), upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit:

A piece of land, containing ten acres, being in Crittenden County, Kentucky, on the waters of both Claylick and Deer creek, and same conveyed to him, J. H. Floyd, on the 15th day of June, 1898, by W. Floyd and wife and J. T. Floyd, wife and now occupied by J. H. Floyd, and bounded thus: Begins at a stone at corner of his garden, thence with F. and Wallace Ferry road, N. 22 1/2 poles to a stone in old line, thence with said line West 71 poles to a stake on a branch with hickory pointers, corner to T. C. Carter, thence up the branch, Carter line S. 29. W 22 3/4 poles to a stake with hickory pointer, thence East 73 poles to the beginning, containing ten acres.

It is further ordered, that if the above described tract of land does not bring enough to satisfy in full the balance of the plaintiff, The Huber Manufacturing Company's debts, interest and costs, said Commissioner will then sell one entire half of the following described tract of land, lying and being in Crittenden County, Ky., on the waters of Hurricane Creek and being the same land conveyed to Henry C. Ward by John L. Sisco and wife, May 25th 1891, and the whole of said tract is bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone in Mrs. Bebout's line, corner to a piece of land sold by J. W. Blue, Sr., to G. W. Foley, thence with said Bebout's line N. 75. W. 78 poles to a black oak stump, corner to said Bebout, thence with another line of said Bebout's N 70. W 33 poles to a stake with hickory and dogwood pointers, corner to T. J. Hoover, thence with a line of same N 17. E., passing said Hoover's post oak corner at 13 poles in all 90 poles to a hick-

E 17 links to a stone, Foley's corner, thence with his line S 92 poles to the beginning containing by survey 62 1/2 acres. And whereas an agreement was heretofore had and entered into as to a division of said described tract of land in which it was agreed and understood that T. J. Hoover was to get and have 31 and 25 acres of said land, having purchased same from H. C. Ward and wife, it also being agreed that said division line as near as said Ward and said Hoover could determine would run as follows: Beginning at a sugar tree in the 92 pole closing line of said survey, thence a line across said survey running about S 72 1/2. E to a stake in the 90 pole line, being the third line of said survey, distance supposed to be 108 poles. It is further ordered, that T. J. Hoover take and hold 31 1/2 acres of said land on the South side of said supposed line, and the remainder, 31 1/2 acres, on the North side of said supposed division line the Commissioner of this Court will sell, or sufficient thereof, to produce the sums of money so ordered to be made. For the purchase price the purchaser, with approved security or securities, must execute Bond, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a Judgement. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

Cut Glass

is always appropriate at the Christmas Season. There is something about its glitter and beauty and brightness which makes it appeal to those of refined tastes. We have some rich, high-class examples for those who can afford them; and we have some lower priced bits for smaller pocketbooks. Some of these latter for less than a dollar are particularly satisfying.

There is a vast difference in Cut Glass qualities and patterns. We are showing only the kind you will be wise in buying. The right value is in each piece for the money you pay for it.

NOTICE!
To the taxpayers of Crittenden county who have not paid their tax for the year, 1902. I have been collecting tax since May 1st, 1902. You have had seven months in which to meet your tax and you have not done so. I have been very patient with you and have given you ample time without pushing you. But there is a time patience ceases to be a virtue and that time has arrived. I must have the $10,000, that you owe me in order to meet my settlement with the county.

On January 1st, 1903, I will hire two men to do nothing but collect what you owe me. They will levy or collect as they go for I am positively going to finish my 1902 tax collecting by May 1, 1903. In order to do that we will be compelled to collect as we go and surely can't come to see you but one time. If you have not the money we will levy on whatever we find to make the tax. The cheapest way out of this thing is to pay your tax at once, and I trust you will govern yourselves accordingly. Thanking you for the very great favors you have shown me in the past and hoping our relations will continue to be as pleasant, I remain most truly your friend.
J. W. LAMB, S.C.O.

Furs!

Furs this season will be prices unheard of. Coon, mink, possum will be 50 per cent. higher than last year. Take my advice and buy steel traps. Quit talking politics and bring me all the furs you can get, it will pay you better than your last corn crop.

Will guarantee $1.50 for No. 1 Mink, $1 for No. 1 Skunk, 30c for No. 1 O'possum, 90 cts for No. 1 Coon, $7.00 a piece for No. Otter.

NOTICE!

To the taxpayers of Crittenden county who have not paid their tax for the year, 1902.

I have been collecting tax since May 1st, 1902. You have had seven months in which to meet your tax and you have not done so. I have been very patient with you and have given you ample time without pushing you. But there is a time patience ceases to be a virtue and that time has arrived. I must have the $10,000, that you owe me in order to meet my settlement with the county.

On January 1st, 1903, I will hire two men to do nothing but collect what you owe me. They will levy or collect as they go for I am positively going to finish my 1902 tax collecting by May 1, 1903. In order to do that we will be compelled to collect as we go and surely can't come to see you but one time. If you have not the money we will levy on whatever we find to make the tax. The cheapest way out of this this thing is to pay your tax at once, and I trust you will govern yourselves accordingly. Thanking you for the very great favors you have shown me in the past and hoping our relations will continue to be as pleasant, I remain most truly your friend.

One reason why the daily newspapers print ten columns about a college football game and ten lines about a college debating contest is that many people think more of feats with the feet than they do of contests between cerebrums. Newspapers were made for the same purpose as the Frenchman's razors.

SENATOR HOAR ON TRUSTS.

Boston, Nov 24.—The Chickatawbut club, a Republican dining organization of Dorchester, ratified the State ticket by listening to an address by Senator George F. Hoar. Speaking of trusts Senator Hoar said:

1. Destruction of competition.
2. The management of industries by absent capital.
3. Destruction of local public spirit.
4. Fraudulent capitalization.
5. Secrecy.
6. Management for the private benefit of the officers.
7. The power to corrupt election and in some cases to corrupt the courts.
8. Indifference to public sentiment.

If the first, fourth and fifth can be cured, the cure of the others in my opinion will follow.

Now, it is the duty of wise statesmanship to go slowly and carefully in this matter so we can cure or prevent the evil without sacrificing or destroying what is good.

A PROMINENT CHEMIST Of Louisville, Ky.,

Has succeeded in perfecting a combination of Camphor with Essential Oils so as to form a perfect and remarkable relieving and curing agent for all external injuries and pains. The peculiar feature of this new remedy and that which is attracting the attention of the medical profession and public is its remarkable power of inducing copious perspiration, thereby opening the pores of the skin and allowing the camphor and Cooling, Soothing Antiseptic oils to penetrate to the source of the ailment removing the congestion by drawing out all fever and inflammation quickly. This new remedy does not heal by drying, scabbing and deadening the nerve centers around the source of the injury, but on the contrary creates activity, stimulates the circulation, soothes and cools the injured nerves, allowing the wound or pain to be relieved and cured quickly without any depressing or bad after effects.

This remedy is so far superior to the old fashioned ointments, salves and liniments that it is rapidly replacing these old time remedies in every household. It is just what the mother, father and children need every day in their homes, office or shop because of its remarkable quick relieving and healing powers.

This new product is manufactured by The Paracamp Company, of Louisville, Ky., and is known as PARACAMP, and we are pleased to inform our readers that our enterprising druggists H. K. Woods & Co., have made arrangements to handle Paracamp in our city.

OLD KENTUCKY HOME.

The History of this Beautiful Old Ballad.

The Weekly Record, of Bardstown, gives this history of the beautiful old song, "My Old Kentucky Home":

The song was written by Stephen Collins Foster, a resident of Pennsylvania, while he and his sister were on a visit to Judge Jno Rowan, a short distance east of Bardstown. One beautiful morning, while the darkies were at work in the cornfields and the sun was shining with a mighty splendor on the waving grass—first giving a color of light red, then changing it to a golden hue—there was seated upon a bench in front of the Rowan homestead two young people—a brother and a sister. High up in the top of a tree was a mocking bird warbling its sweetest notes. Over in the hidden recesses of a small bush the thrush's mellow song could be heard. A number of small negro children were playing not far away. When Foster had finished the first verse of the song his sister took it from his hand and sang in a sweet, mellow voice:

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the darkies are gay
The corn top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All happy, all merry, all bright;
By'm bye hard time come knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home good night.

On her finishing the first verse the mocking bird descended to a lower limb. The feathery songster drew his head to one side and appeared to be completely enraptured at the wonderful voice of the young singer. When the last sweet note had died away upon the air her fond brother sang in a deep bass voice:

Weep no more, my lady; oh weep no more today;
We'll sing one song for the old Kentucky home,
For our old Kentucky home far away.

The darkies had laid down their hoe and rake; the little tots had placed themselves behind the large sheltering trees, while the old black women were peeping around the corner of the house. The faithful old house dog never took his eyes off the young singers. Everything was still, not even the stirring of the leaves seemed to break the wonderful silence; again the brother and sister took hold of the remaining notes and sang in sweet accents:

They hunt no more for the 'possum and the coon
On the meadow, the hill and the shore;
They sing no more by the glimpse of the moon
On the bench by the old cabin door.

The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart,
With sorrow where all was delight;
The time has come when the darkies have to part,
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

The head must bow and the back will have to bend
Wherever the darkies may go.
A few more days and the trouble all will end
In the field where the sugar canes grow.

A few more days to "tote" the weary load,
No matter, it never will be light;
A few more days for to totter on the road—
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

As the song was finished tears flowed down the old darkies cheeks the children crept from their hidding places behind the trees, their faces wreathed in smiles, the mocking bird and the thrush sought their homes in the thicket, while the old dog still lay basking in the sun.

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their "teens" are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion.

It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any sufferer. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

RULES GOVERNING CONTEST.

- (1) Every lady, married or unmarried, residing in Crittenden and Livingston counties, is eligible to enter the contest.
- (2) Every $1.00 paid on subscription to the Press entitles the subscriber to four votes in the contest. Every 25 cent subscription entitles the subscriber to one vote.
- (3) A contestant must reside in either Crittenden or Livingston county; the voter may reside anywhere in the United States.
- (4) No restrictions are placed on the voter, except that all votes must be cast on ballots provided by the Press for use in said contest.
- (5) The voter may pay all his arrears and may pay his subscription as many years in advance as he may desire and for each dollar so paid receive a ticket entitling the holder to four votes in the contest.
- (6) As received the ballots will be placed in a locked box kept in the Press office for that purpose. The box will be opened every Wednesday morning, and the ballots counted. The next day's issue of the Press will contain the standing of each candidate. The report will appear each week.
- (7) The last count before the close of the contest will be made on WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 17th. The ballot box will then be locked, the key given to some reputable citizen for safe keeping, and the box remain unopened until the close.
- (8) The contest will be closed at 4 o'clock WEDNESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 24th.
- (9) Immediately after the close a committee of three reputable and disinterested citizens will take charge of the ballot box, open and count the ballots, and determine the winner in the contest.
- (10) The contest will be conducted in a most impartial manner and these rules will be strictly observed. Those interested should read them carefully.

Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly, itchy, all forms of eczema, or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from the same cause, inherited or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with dry medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to help the system discharge the humors, and to strengthen the digestive and assimilative functions against their return.

Hood's Sarsaparilla can be confidently relied upon to do that, according to thousands of voluntary testimonials.

It effects radical and permanent cures. "I was troubled with eczema for some time, but have had no return of the disease since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. G. Hixes, Frank, Ill.

SENATOR HOAR ON TRUSTS.

Boston, Nov 24.—The Chickatawbut club, a Republican dining organization of Dorchester, ratified the State ticket by listening to an address by Senator George F. Hoar. Speaking of trusts Senator Hoar said:

- The evils of trusts are:
1. Destruction of competition.
 2. The management of industries by absent capital.
 3. Destruction of local public spirit.
 4. Fraudulent capitalization.
 5. Secrecy.
 6. Management for the private benefit of the officers.
 7. The power to corrupt election and in some cases to corrupt the courts.
 9. Indifference to public sentiment.

If the first, fourth and fifth can be cured, the cure of the others in my opinion will follow.

Now, it is the duty of wise statesmanship to go slowly and carefully in this matter so we can cure or prevent the evil without sacrificing or destroying what is good.

A PROMINENT CHEMIST Of Louisville, Ky.

Has succeeded in perfecting a combination of Camphor with Essential Oils so as to form a perfect and remarkable relieving and curing agent for all external injuries and pains. The peculiar feature of this new remedy and that which is attracting the attention of the medical profession and public is its remarkable power of inducing copious perspiration, thereby opening the pores of the skin and allowing the camphor and cooling, soothing antiseptic oils to penetrate to the source of the ailment removing the congestion by drawing out all fever and inflammation quickly. This new remedy does not heal by drying, scabbing and deadening the nerve centers around the source of the injury, but on the contrary creates activity, stimulates the circulation, soothes and cools the injured nerves, allowing the wound or pain to be relieved and cured quickly without any depressing or bad after effects.

This remedy is so far superior to the old fashioned ointments, salves and liniments that it is rapidly replacing these old time remedies in every household. It is just what the mother, father and children need every day in their homes, office or shop because of its remarkable quick relieving and healing powers.

This new product is manufactured by The Paracamp Company, of Louisville, Ky., and is known as PARACAMP, and we are pleased to inform our readers that our enterprising druggists H. K. Woods & Co., have made arrangements to handle Paracamp in our city.

OLD KENTUCKY HOME.

The History of this Beautiful Old Ballad.

The Weekly Record, of Bardstown, gives this history of the beautiful old song, "My Old Kentucky Home":

The song was written by Stephen Collins Foster, a resident of Pennsylvania, while he and his sister were on a visit to Judge Jno Rowan, a short distance east of Bardstown. One beautiful morning, while the darkies were at work in the cornfield and the sun was shining with a mighty splendor on the waving grass—first giving a color of light red, then changing it to a golden hue—there was seated upon a bench in front of the Rowan homestead two young people—a brother and a sister. High up in the top of a tree was a mocking bird warbling its sweetest notes. Over in the hidden recesses of a small bush the thrush's mellow song could be heard. A number of small negro children were playing not far away. When Foster finished the first verse of the song his sister took it from his hand and sang in a sweet, mellow voice:

The sun shines bright on my old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the darkies are gay
The corn top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom,
While the birds make music all the day.

The young folks roll on the little cabin floor,
All happy, all merry, all bright;
By'm bye hard time come knocking at the door,
Then my old Kentucky home good night.

On her finishing the first verse the mocking bird descended to a lower limb. The feathery songster drew his head to one side and appeared to be completely enraptured at the wonderful voice of the young singer. When the last sweet note had died away upon the air her fond brother sang in a deep bass voice:

Weep no more, my lady; oh weep no more today;
We'll sing one song for the old Kentucky home,
For our old Kentucky home far away.

The darkies had laid down their hoe and rake; the little tots had placed themselves behind the large sheltering trees, while the old black women were peeping around the corner of the house. The faithful old house dog never took his eyes off the young singers. Everything was still, not even the stirring of the leaves seemed to break the wonderful silence; again the brother and sister took hold of the remaining notes and sang in sweet accents:

They hunt no more for the 'possum and the coon
On the meadow, the hill and the shore;
They sing no more by the glimpse of the moon
On the bench by the old cabin door.

The day goes by like a shadow o'er the heart,
With sorrow where all was delight;
The time has come when the darkies have to part,
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.

The head must bow and the back will have to bend
Wherever the darkies may go.
A few more days and the trouble all will end
In the field where the sugar canes grow.

A few more days to "tote" the weary load,
No matter, it never will be light;
A few more days for to totter on the road—
Then my old Kentucky home, good night.
As the song was finished tears flowed down the old darkies cheeks the children crept from their hidding places behind the trees, their faces wreathed in smiles, the mocking bird and the thrush sought their homes in the thicket, while the old dog still lay basking in the sun.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Doing of Congress in the Past Week.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6, 1902.

Editor Press, Marion, Ky.

Congress is again in session, the President's message has been sent in and all indications point to a lively, if brief session. The message was well and even enthusiastically received by members of both parties. The republicans were enthusiastic over the high plane on which Mr. Roosevelt put the consideration of the essentially material subjects with which he deals, and the conservatism with which he handles the tariff and the trusts. As was foretold in these letters, there is nothing radical in the President's recommendations, but a certain portion of his own party, unable to realize that their leader is not the erratic individual which they have always pictured him, expressed gratification and relief when they learned the moderation of his expressions.

The force with which Mr. Roosevelt presents the trust problem is appreciated and his clear-cut delineation of the end to be attained in anti-trust legislation is bound to result in the submission of numerous bills, aimed to accomplish those ends. Senator Cullom has already presented a measure which prohibits interstate commerce in articles produced by trusts and requires the officials of corporations, against whom charges of monopoly are brought, to submit such facts and figures to the Attorney General as he may call for, not for general publication but for his own guidance. All trust legislation in the Senate, however, is likely to meet with a serious obstacle in Senator Hoar, chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, who does not believe that justice can be done the subject during a short session.

In the House a more vigorous effort seems likely to be made. Representative Littlefield tells your correspondent that he hopes to see a bill, presumably modeled on the measure he offered last session, reported from the Judiciary Committee before the holiday recess. Representative Jenkins, who is the unanimous choice of the Committee for chairman, to succeed Representative Ray, resigned, also favors prompt action. Representative Hepburn has offered a bill in accordance with the President's recommendation that more funds be furnished the Attorney General for the purpose of enforcing the existing law. The bill appropriates $500,000 for the purpose of fighting the trusts and is regarded with approval by many influential members of the House.

Considerable disappointment was expressed in regard to the President's reference to the isthmian canal. It was hoped but largely without reason, that Mr. Roosevelt would be in a position to give more definite information in regard to the negotiations with Colombia than had been offered by the press. It is learned at the State Department, however, that the succession of Dr. Herran, vice Senator Coucha, as Colombian minister to the United States, augurs well for the negotiation. The question of sovereignty over the zone of the canal is regarded as decided and there only remains a difference as to the remuneration. Colombia has so far demanded an annual rental of more than $200,000 in excess of that the United States is prepared to pay.

Representative Hull in the House and Senator Proctor in the Senate, introduced a bill prepared by Secretary Root providing for the establishment of a general staff to virtually supersede the general commanding the army. The fact that Senator Proctor introduced the bill is regarded as a great triumph for Mr. Root as indicating that he has succeeded in breaking down the opposition which caused a similar measure to be buried in committee last year. Senator Proctor explained to your correspondent, however, that the Secretary of War had so altered his measure as to remove the serious objections which the Senator held toward it last year.

Mr. J. J. Hill, president of the great Northern Railway, who was seen last evening at the Arlington hotel, said he approved of that portion of the President's message which concerned the trust question. He had seen the message several days before it was made public and thought the President was wise in leaving Congress to determine the remedy for trust evils. Asked if, as a railway president, he could approve the message he said, "Our company certainly has nothing to fear." He compared many of the trust promoters to the late Mr. Krupp, of Germany, whose country and employees have been greatly benefited by the fortune he had amassed and the great aggregation of capital he had centered in a single industry.

The bill providing for the admission of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona as a statehood promises to precipitate a most interesting fight in the Senate. The New England senators are all opposed to the admission of any of the territories, many are opposed to the admission of any of the states and still others, the friends of the bill claim the number of states, are pledged to vote for it. Senators Quay and Elkins will lead the fight for the measure and the democrats are said to be unanimously in favor of it. The opponents of admission say that doubtless Mr. Roosevelt will carry the states for his party by reason of his personal popularity, but after him there will come a deluge of democratic votes from that section.

A TRUTHFUL EDITOR.

A Strict Regard For the Truth Disastrous in the Newspaper Business.

A Missouri editor announced that just for one issue he would tell the truth. Here are a few items from that issue:

"John Darb, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Bellview yesterday. John Doyle, our groceryman, is doing a poor business. His story is dirty, dusty and noisily orderiferous. How can he expect to do much? Rev. Styx preached Sunday night on charity. The sermon was punk. If the reverend gentlemen would live up a little closer to what he preaches he'd have bigger congregations. Dave Sonkey died last Saturday at his home in this place. The doctor gave it up as heart failure. Truth is he was drunk and whisky is what killed him. His home was a rented shack in Rowdy street. Married—Miss Slyva Rhodes and James Canahan, last Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage. The bride is a very ordinary town girl who doesn't know any more than a rabbit about cooking, and who never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a fat duck. The groom is well known here as a up-to-date loafer. He has been living off the old folks all his life and don't amount to shucks. They will live a hard life while they live together and the News has no congratulations to offer, for we don't believe any good can come from such a union."

The issue in which the Missouri editor told the truth was the last one he ever made. Now in the spring time, when the dew like diamonds sparkles in the tender grass, when sweet throated birds make a melody all the day, subscribers to this paper while it was published drive out into the country a short way to catch a glimpse of a piece of black skin which hangs suspended from a barbed wire fence. It is all that remains of the once manly form of the Missouri editor who "told the truth for one week."

"The worst licking I ever got in my life was for throwing my hand behind me," said a man from Kentucky, "and the wonder is that I got off with my life. I had been hanging around a little station in Todd county waiting for a train, and being a stranger in that region of the State I had but little to say to the men who stood around the depot. I will not mention the name of the place, for I might by some strange throw of the dice have to go back there again, but I will remark by the way that the men of that section had a reputation of shooting on but slight provocation, and this was one reason why I did not care to get into conversation with the men around the depot. You can never tell you know, when a friendly chat is going to wind up in a riot in Kentucky—at least in certain sections of the state. I felt that I was in just such a section on the day in question. I held my tongue. But along about train time a medium-sized man approached me and made a remark which I did not quite catch. 'What's that?' I asked rather sharply, and at the same time I threw my hand behind me and reached down in my hip pocket. Before I fully realized it something was happening to me, and it was of a furious and fast nature. The Kentuckian had simply crawled all over me. He swept the depot platform with me almost in a jiffy. When he let go I was in a bad condition to take the train. My clothes were covered with dust, my face was bruised and black, and I was otherwise in an ugly condition. Did I try to pull a pistol? No, indeed. I never had a pistol with me and had no idea of getting into any sort of trouble at the moment. I had simply reached into my hip pocket for a chew of tobacco, but the Kentuckian evidently thought I was reaching for a gun. He was taking no chances, and he gave me one of the best Maulings I ever got. The moral of this tale is: Keep your hands from your hip pocket while in Kentucky."—New Orleans Times Democrat.

Free Delivery to Become General

If the information that comes from Washington is to be relied upon, and there is no reason to believe to the contrary the ruralist everywhere had as well get ready and welcome the free rural delivery of mail. The officials of the postoffice department look forward now to the extension of rural free delivery throughout the United States, says the Lexington Democrat. They have made their estimates as to what it will cost to deliver letters on every American farm or plantation in the sparsely settled and thickly settled parts of the country. The cost will not be trifling. To deliver every rural American his mail will take about $24,000,000 a year. Should the present service be extended at the rate of 12,000 routes a year until the 700,000 square miles of territory yet to be covered have been taken care of, there will for several years be an annual deficit in postal revenues of from $8,000,000. The deficit will, it is asserted disappear gradually as the revenues increase by reason of the improved postal facilities. Not many years ago rural free delivery was a questionable sort of an experiment. The farmers for whose benefit it was intended, did not in all quarters take kindly to it. But they appreciate fully now the advantages of the new departure. There is an increasing pressure for the establishment of rural routes and the representatives of a country district who cannot secure something in this line for his constituents runs the risk of losing his popularity.

IMPORTANT NEWSPAPER CHANGE.

Henry Watterson's Courier-Journal Announces a New Policy.

During Three Decades the Louisville Courier-Journal has stood unalterably and conspicuously before the public as the representative of the great commonality of the people against both the Robber Baron, seeking through the accretion of ill-got money to steal away the people's liberty by stealing away their franchise rights, and the ready-tool of the Robber Baron, the bandit politician, masquerading as a Statesman and a patriot the better to serve the ends of his master. In fulfilling the high function it has sometimes had to go fast and sometimes to go slow, sometimes to cry "onward" and sometimes to cry "half," sometimes to drive at the root of things, and sometimes to drive ahead; but never changing the direction of its movement and always true to the underlying principle of its being, expressed by the simple demand for "The Greatest Good to the Greatest Number."

With the advent of the New Year, that is on the first of January, 1903, the Courier-Journal begins a campaign from which it looks for commanding results, and the better to reach the objects it has before it, the twice-a-week edition was changed to a once-a-week edition returning to the old Weekly Courier-Journal, which for a quarter of a Century was literally a political bible to millions of Americans who knew they could trust both its preface and its

WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Doing of Congress in the 'Past Week.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6, 1902.
EDITOR PRESS, Marion, Ky.

Congress is again in session, the President's message has been sent in and all indications point to a lively, if brief session. The message was well and even enthusiastically received by members of both parties. The republicans were enthusiastic over the high plane on which Mr. Roosevelt put the consideration of the essentially material subjects with which he deals, and the conservatism with which he handles the tariff and the trusts. As was foretold in these letters, there is nothing radical in the President's recommendations, but a certain portion of his own party, unable to realize that their leader is not the erratic individual which they have always pictured him, expressed gratification and relief when they learned the moderation of his expressions.

The force with which Mr. Roosevelt presents the trust problem is appreciated and his clear-cut delineation of the end to be attained in anti-trust legislation is bound to result in the submission of numerous bills, aimed to accomplish those ends. Senator Cullom has already presented a measure which prohibits interstate commerce in articles produced by trusts and requires the officials of corporations, against whom charges of monopoly are brought, to submit such facts and figures to the Attorney General as he may call for, not for general publication but for his own guidance. All trust legislation in the Senate, however, is likely to meet with a serious obstacle in Senator Hoar, chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, who does not believe that justice can be done the subject during a short session.

In the House a more vigorous effort seems likely to be made. Representative Littlefield tells your correspondent that he hopes to see a bill, presumably modeled on the measure he offered last session, reported from the Judiciary Committee before the holiday recess. Representative Jenkins, who is the unanimous choice of the Committee for chairman, to succeed Representative Ray, resigned, also favors prompt action. Representative Hepburn has offered a bill in accordance with the President's recommendation that more funds be furnished the Attorney General for the purpose of enforcing the existing law. The bill appropriates $500,000 for the purpose of fighting the trusts and is regarded with approval by many influential members of the House.

Considerable disappointment was expressed in regard to the President's reference to the isthmian canal. It was hoped but largely without reason, that Mr. Roosevelt would be in a position to give more definite information in regard to the negotiations with Colombia than had been offered by the press. It is learned at the State Department, however, that the succession of Dr. Herran, Vice-Senior Concha, as Colombian minister to the United States, augurs well for the negotiation. The question of sovereignty over the zone of the canal is regarded as decided and there only remains a difference as to the remuneration. Colombia has so far demanded an annual rental of more than $300,000 in excess of that the United States is prepared to pay.

Representative Hull in the House and Senator Proctor in the Senate, introduced a bill prepared by Secretary Root providing for the establishment of a general staff to virtually supersede the general commanding the army. The fact that Senator Proctor introduced the bill is regarded as a great triumph for Mr. Root as indicating that he has succeeded in breaking down the opposition which caused a similar measure to be buried in committee last year. Senator Proctor explained to your correspondent, however, that the Secretary of War had so altered his measure as to remove the serious objections which the Senator held toward it last year.

Mr. J. J. Hill, president of the great Northern Railway, who was seen last evening at the Arlington hotel, said he approved of that portion of the President's message which concerned the trust question. He had seen the message several days before it was made public and thought the President was wise in leaving Congress to determine the remedy for trust evils. Asked if, as a railway president, he could approve the message he said, "Our company certainly has nothing to fear." He compared many of the trust promoters to the late Mr. Krupp, of Germany, whose country and employees had been greatly benefitted by the fortune he had amassed and the great aggregation of capital he had centered in a single industry.

The bill providing for the admission of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona to statehood promises to precipitate a most interesting fight in the Senate. The New England senators are all opposed to the admission of any of the territories, many are opposed to the admission of any but Oklahoma and still other republicans, the friends of the bill claim to the number of fifteen, are pledged to vote for it. Senators Quay and Elkins will lead the fight for the measure and the democrats are said to be unanimously in favor of it. The opponents of admission say that doubtless Mr. Roosevelt will carry the states for his party by reason of his personal popularity, but after him there will come a deluge of democratic votes from that section.

A TRUTHFUL EDITOR.

A Strict Regard For the Truth Disasterous in the Newspaper Business.

A Missouri editor announced that just for one issue he would tell the truth. Here are a few items from that issue:

"John Darb, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Bellview yesterday. John Doyle, our groceryman, is doing a poor business. His story is dirty, dusty and noisily orderiferous. How can he expect to do much? Rev. Styr preached Sunday night on charity. The sermon was punk. If the reverend gentlemen would live up a little closer to what he preaches he'd have bigger congregations. Dave Sonkey died last Saturday at his home in this place. The doctor gave it up as heart failure. Truth is he was drunk and whisky is what killed him. His home was a rented shack in Rowdy street. Married—Miss Sylvia Rhodes and James Canahan, last Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage. The bride is a very ordinary town girl who doesn't know any more than a rabbit about cooking, and who never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a fat duck. The groom is well known here as a up-to-date loafer. He has been living off the old folks all his life and don't amount to shucks. They will live a hard life while they live together and the News has no congratulations to offer, for we don't believe any good can come from such a union."

The issue in which the Missouri editor told the truth was the last one he ever made. Now in the spring time, when the dew like diamonds sparkles in the tender grass, when sweet-throated birds make a melody all the day, subscribers to this paper while it was published drive out into the country a short way to catch a glimpse of a piece of black skin which hangs suspended from a barbed wire fence. LOCAL NEWS OF MANY DISTRICTS.

NEW SALEM.

Ed Sommers has a sick child.
Rev. J. S. Henry was re-called to preach for Union church for the ensuing year 1903.
Hog killing is in full blast in this section; one-third of the farmers will not have sufficient meat to run them another year, owing to the scarcity of hogs.
About one-third of the present crop of tobacco is sold. Most of it going to Pinckneyville, Ky. The prices are hardly so good as last year.
Felix and Jesse Tyner left last week for Arkansas; they will be gone some time.
Will S. Lowery left Sunday for Louisville.
Miss Flotilla Noering, of Louisville was the guest of the family of W. C. Tyner last week.
The men with the machinery to bore for oil are expected between now and Christmas.
Henry Brouster spent part of last week attending court at Smithland.
The late rains have greatly benefited the growing wheat crop.
The farmers of this section took advantage of the damp weather of the past ten days in stripping their tobacco. Some are through.
Tom Barnes and Raymon Babb hauled the largest piece of machinery from Marion to the Nancy Hanks mine last Saturday we ever saw on wheels; it was a hoisting engine, and it took ten head of big mules to pull it. Lord it was a whopper!

When young men get full of whisky and go to the house of God on Sunday, it is but a short time—a very short time at that until you hear of the jail doors being open unto them.
Every one that wants work can find it. We never saw better times for the laboring man than the present.
Our county court needs to do some road work near the county line between Crittenden and Livingston counties on the Marion and Salem road near the residence of Arch Crosson's deceased. The road will soon be impassable, as it is the mail route and over which a great deal of traffic is done.

BLACKBURN.

Having noticed nothing from this community in a long time, will write a few items for your most welcome paper, which I have read for eighteen years.
Our neighborhood is on a boom.
John Burchfield has put up a new stable.
William Stenbridge is having a house erected for his son-in-law.
Mrs. J. N. McDowell died Dec. 3rd. She suffered with consumption. She was the daughter of the late E. H. Porter.
Lon Travis has a big boy at his house

CHAPEL HILL.

Mr. Jeff Yandell is on the sick list.
Mrs. D. S. Hill, of Evansville, is the guest of T. M. Hill's family.
Mr. Tom Yandell sold three hogs to Mr. Calvin Elder, that netted him the little sum of $72.
Mr. Everett Bebout caught what is called a mud hen. He was riding along and saw it with its head stuck in a hole in a bank. It is a queer looking thing. If you want to know anything of this animal call on Mr. Bebout.
They have had a good revival meeting at Crayneville. Bro. Oakley done the preaching, and had the little town stirred up. They had several conversions.
Mr. Harry Long and wife, of Illinois, are visiting Mrs. J. C. Long.
There is some talk of John Rushing locating in our community. We welcome you John, come on.
A good many in our precinct are done gathering corn. The yield so far is up to an average crop.
It is rumored that Mr. Harry Summers who left here several years ago and who now resides in Texas, is talking of coming back to this country to make his future home. Mr. Summers is preaching the Gospel in Texas and has been successful until he lost his wife, who was the daughter of Mr. Jeff Yandell.
J. T. Bigham has a cow and calf for sale. A good milker.
Tobacco all sold in Chapel Hill except a few crops. All sold at good prices.
James A. Hill is having some hay baled. James & James are doing the bailing.
B. F. Walker and family were visiting in Union Saturday and Sunday.
Chapel Hill boys have sold their tobacco and are looking forward to the good time when they can get their little wind and put down into their old jeans pocket.
A good crowd assembled at Chapel Hill Monday for the purpose of surveying the burying ground and preparing to fence same. A meeting was held and organized with T. M. Hill chairman and W. H. Bigham secretary. It was agreed to put a wire fence around the cemetery and lay it off in squares. There were several present and selected their lot. George Perry done the surveying. It was decided to call it Chapel Hill Burying Ground. They then called another meeting and elected W. L. Adams as chairman to continue the work. Mr. T. M. Hill gave the ground for the benefit of the community and made a deed to it. The meeting then adjourned to meet again in the near future.

Peters Creek, Ill., May 1.—This is to certify that I have used Hill's Specific in my family for over ten years for bowel complaints of different kinds and have many practical opportunities to test its merit and I believe it has saved the life of more than one of my children. I am never without it in my house. I unhesitatingly say it is the best preparation I ever used.
TAOS, HOLLOWAY.

STARR.

We have had a lot of rain.
Five more weeks of school.
Grant and George Turley, of Illinois, are visiting relatives in this section.
Dollar & Co., have purchased a few crops of tobacco in this part paying $1 and $5 per cwt. The same grade of tobacco sold in Louisville last week at $5 and $7. The producer is the one that gets left. What is the matter with you farmer?
Deputy assessor Chandler was here last week trying to find taxable property enough to meet the demands of that "fiscal court."
Asberry Jacobs has the fever.
Piney church house has been beautified with a new roof.
Spelling last Friday night.
A young man, Mr. Porter was buried here Monday.
Rev. Vaughn preached at Piney Creek last Saturday and Sunday.
Prof. J. B. Hunt attended the spelling here Friday night.
Our town is getting ready for Christmas.
Paul Walker, of Marion, was here this week painting the church house.
Albert Shinnall, the young man that was shot during Piney Creek meeting is reported better at this time. He has been very low.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at H. K. Woods & Co.

"OLD JIM" NEWS.

Things are still flourishing at the Old Jim Zinc Mines. The vein is still looking well and a fine quality of gray jack is still very plentiful.
To the visitors of the Jim Mines: Please call and see us all. Don't forsake us in the pinch of the fall; you can get plenty of good cool air and clear cold water to drink.
Ed. Farmer the machinist, has a very active partner, Mr. Herman Tolley, of Livingston county.
The hands are all in sympathy with John Robertson as he had to quit work; thought he was taking the scarlet fever.
Presley Davis works on the jack pile; he is a good hand, and thinks that he deserves beef all the time at his boarding house.
Ben Beard still owns the little gule.

Charley Davidson and his partner Berry Allison, still work in the drift on the hill.

Calvin Clark, E. O. Butler, Carl Monroe, Anthony Thomas and Nathan Perion are the under-ground hands and they are swift.

Poor Alvin Walker hardly ever sees a well day now. He bought a new buggy a few days ago and his wife can't keep him from sitting out in the night air springing up and down in his new buggy and that gives him a cold.

Oh, sad news again, Alvin Walker ate too many pickled hogs feet, and he is not so well.

John Ryne, known as the "old tobacco bum" at the Old Jim, will be on time soon as he gets caught up with sleep.

Marion Davidson has a big boy at his home, and a fine girl arrived last week at Henry Lynn's.

G. W. Butterff writes: Laketon, Ky., May 1: I can sincerely recommend Hill's Specific as it cured several members of my family as well as my neighbors family of different forms of bowel complaints. It is the best medicine I ever used. Price 25 cents. For sale by all dealers in the county.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Manns Dec. 3rd, a daughter.
Dr. J. M. Graves reports from his practice in Livingston county, Dec. 4th, the birth of a child with two heads and two pairs of arms. Below the arms the child had only one body. It expired at birth.
W. L. Bennett is negotiating for the purchase of the gasoline boat City of Carville.
Rev. Kemper preached at the Methodist church here Sunday.
Mrs. W. B. Charles and children took passage on the steamer J. B. Richardson for Cumberland City, Tenn., for a months visit to Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Charles, Sunday.
Mrs. W. R. Smith returned to her home in Paducah Monday after an extended visit to Mrs. M. B. Charles. Mrs. Charles recently paid a visit to Mrs. Smith during which she made a trip up the Tennessee River with Capt. and Mrs. Smith on their boat City of Clarksville.
A protracted meeting is in progress at Grove Chapel conducted by Rev. Lucy.

LEVIAS.

Thos G. Davidson was in our community last week taking options on some of the farms.
Bro. J. S. Henry was called to the pastorate of Union church Saturday. This is the thirteenth year for Bro. Henry at this place. The salary has been increased some which was not at all objectionable.
It seems that the Xmas tree is no go this year. However, the majority were in favor of it. Some people always object to anything, good or bad.
Somewhat of a revolution will take place in Levias this week in the way of moving. R. A. LaRue will move to the old home of his childhood; T. M. Conyer to O. G. Threlkeld's house and O. G.

COCHRAN & BAKER.

LOCAL NEWS OF MANY DISTRICTS.

NEW SALEM.

Ed Sommers has a sick child.

Rev. J. S. Henry was recalled to preach for Union church for the ensuing year 1903.

Hog killing is in full blast in this section; one-third of the farmers will not have sufficient meat to run them another year, owing to the scarcity of hogs.

About one-third of the present crop of tobacco is sold. Most of it going to Pinckneyville, Ky. The prices are hardly so good as last year.

Felix and Jesse Tyner left last week for Arkansas; they will be gone some time.

Will S. Lowery left Sunday for Louisville.

Miss Flotilla Noering, of Louisville was the guest of the family of W. C. Tyner last week.

The men with the machinery to bore for oil are expected between now and Christmas.

Henry Brouster spent part of last week attending court at Smithland.

The late rains have greatly benefited the growing wheat crop.

The farmers of this section took advantage of the damp weather of the past ten days in stripping their tobacco. Some are through.

Tom Barnes and Raymon Babb hauled the largest piece of machinery from Marion to New Salem nine last Saturday we ever saw on wheels; it was a hoisting engine, and it took ten head of big mules to pull it. Lord it was a whopper!

When young men get full of whisky and go to the house of God on Sunday, it is but a short time—a very short time at that until you hear of the jail doors being open unto them.

Every one that wants work can find it. We never saw better times for the laboring man than the present.

Our county court needs to do some road work near the county line between Crittenden and Livingston counties on the Marion and Salem road near the residence of Arch Crosson's deceased. The road will soon be impassable, as it is the mail route and over which a great deal of traffic is done.

BLACKBURN.

Having noticed nothing from this community in a long time, will write a few items for your most welcome paper, which I have read for eighteen years.

Our neighborhood is on a boom.

John Burchfield has put up a new stable.

William Stembridge is having a house erected for his son-in-law.

Mrs. J. N. McDowell died Dec. 3rd. She suffered with consumption. She was the daughter of the late E. H. Porter.

Lon Travis has a big boy at his house.

CHAPEL HILL.

Mr. Jeff Yandell is on the sick list.

Mrs. D. S. Hill, of Evansville, is the guest of T. M. Hill's family.

Mr. Tom Yandell sold three hogs to Mr. Calvin Elder, that netted him the little sum of $72.

Mr. Everett Bebout caught what is called a mud hen. He was riding along and saw it with its head stuck in a hole in a bank. It is a queer looking thing. If you want to know anything of this animal call on Mr. Bebout.

They have had a good revival meeting at Crayneville. Bro. Oakley done the preaching, and had the little town stirred up. They had several conversions.

Mr. Harry Long and wife, of Illinois, are visiting Mrs. J. C. Long.

There is some talk of John Rushing locating in our community. We welcome you John, come on.

A good many in our precinct are done gathering corn. The yield so far is up to an average crop.

It is rumored that Mr. Harry Summers who left here several years ago and who now resides in Texas, is talking of coming back to this country to make his future home. Mr. Summers is preaching the Gospel in Texas and has been successful until he lost his wife, who was the daughter of Mr. Jeff Yandell.

J. T. Bigham has a cow and calf for sale. A good milker.

Tobacco all sold in Chapel Hill except a few crops. All sold at good prices.

James A. Hill is having some hay baled. James & James are doing the bailing.

B. F. Walker and family were visiting in Union Saturday and Sunday.

Chapel Hill boys have sold their tobacco and are looking forward to the good time when they can get their little wad and put down into their old jeans pocket.

A good crowd assembled at Chapel Hill Monday for the purpose of surveying the burying ground and preparing to fence same. A meeting was held and organized with T. M. Hill chairman and W. H. Bigham secretary. It was agreed to put a wire fence around the cemetery and lay it off in squares. There were several present and selected their lot. George Perry done the surveying. It was decided to call it Chapel Hill Burying Ground. They then called another meeting and elected W. L. Adams as chairman to continue the work. Mr. T. M. Hill gave the ground for the benefit for the community and made a deed to it. The meeting then adjourned to meet again in the near future.

Peters Creek, Ill., May 1.—This is to certify that I have used Hill's Specific in my family for over ten years for bowel complaints of different kinds and have many practical opportunities to test its merit and I believe it has saved the life of more than one of my children. I am never without it in my house. I unhesitatingly say it is the best preparation I ever used.

TAOS, HOLLOWAY.

Ben Beard still owns the little mule.

STARR.

We have had a lot of rain.

Five more weeks of school.

Grant and George Turley, of Illinois, are visiting relatives in this section.

Dollar & Co., have purchased a few crops of tobacco in this part paying $1 and $5 per cwt. The same grade of tobacco sold in Louisville last week at $5 and $7. The producer is the one that gets left. What is the matter with you farmer?

Deputy assessor Chandler was here last week trying to find taxable property enough to meet the demands of that "fiscal court."

Asberry Jacobs has the fever.

Piney church house has been beautified with a new roof.

Spelling last Friday night.

A young man, Mr. Porter was buried here Monday.

Rev. Vaughn preached at Piney Creek last Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. J. B. Hunt attended the spelling here Friday night.

Our town is getting ready for Christmas.

Paul Walker, of Marion, was here this week painting the church house.

Albert Shinnall, the young man that was shot during Piney Creek meeting is reported better at this time. He has been very low.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901." Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at H. K. Woods & Co.

"OLD JIM" NEWS.

Things are still flourishing at the Old Jim Zinc Mines. The vein is still looking well and a fine quality of gray jack is still very plentiful.

To the visitors of the Jim Mines: Please call and see us all. Don't forsake us in the pinch of the fall; you can get plenty of good cool air and clear cold water to drink.

Ed. Farmer the machinist, has a very active partner, Mr. Herman Tolley, of Livingston county.

Charley Davidson and his partner Berry Allison, still work in the drift on the hill.

Calvin Clark, E. O. Butler, Carl Monroe, Anthony Thomas and Nathan Perion are the under-ground hands and they are swift.

Poor Alvin Walker hardly ever sees a well day now. He bought a new buggy a few days ago and his wife can't keep him from sitting out in the night air springing up and down in his new buggy and that gives him a cold.

Oh, sad news again, Alvin Walker ate too many pickled hogs feet, and he is not so well.

John Ryne, known as the "old tobacco bum" at the Old Jim, will be on time soon as he gets caught up with sleep.

Marion Davidson has a big boy at his home, and a fine girl arrived last week at Henry Lynn's.

G. W. Butterff writes: Laketon, Ky., May 1: I can sincerely recommend Hill's Specific as it cured several members of my family as well as my neighbors family of different forms of bowel complaints. It is the best medicine I ever used. Price 25 cents. For sale by all dealers in the county.

DYCUSBURG.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Koon died Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Manns Dec. 3rd, a daughter.

Dr. J. M. Graves reports from his practice in Livingston county, Dec. 4th, the birth of a child with two heads and two pairs of arms. Below the arms the child had only one body. It expired at birth.

W. L. Bennett is negotiating for the purchase of the gasoline boat City of Carrsville.

Rev. Kemper preached at the Methodist church Sunday.

Mrs. W. B. Charles and children took passage on the steamer J. B. Richardson for Cumberland City, Tenn., for a month's visit to Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Charles, Sunday.

Mrs. W. R. Smith returned to her home in Paducah Monday after an extended visit to Mrs. M. B. Charles. Mrs. Charles recently paid a visit to Mrs. Smith during which she made a trip up the Tennessee River with Capt. and Mrs. Smith on their boat City of Clarksville.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Grove Chapel conducted by Rev. Lucy.

LEVIAS.

Thos G. Davidson was in our community last week taking options on some of the farms.

Bro. J. S. Henry was called to the pastorate of Union church Saturday. This is the thirteenth year for Bro. Henry at this place. The salary has been increased some which was not at all objectionable.

It seems that the Xmas tree is no go this year. However, the majority were in favor of it. Some people always object to anything, good or bad.

Somewhat of a revolution will take place in Levias this week in the way of moving. B. A. LaRue will move to the old home of his childhood; T. M. Conyer to O. G. Threlkeld's house and O. G.
